Hazarat Abu Hurairah (R.A.A) relates that the Holy Prophet (S.A.S.) said: The first thing about which a person shall be questioned on the Day of Judgment will be prayer (Salaat). If his prayer (Salaat) is found in order, he would be considered as successful and would achieve his objective. If there would be some defect or deficiency in the same, he would be ruined and a loser. If some shortcomings are found in his obligations, which are Farz, and obligatory, Allah, the Master of Honor and Glory will say: See if my servant has some optional prayers in his account which may make up for the short comings in his Farz prayers. All his actions will be examined in this way.

Hazarat Abu Hurairah (R.A.A) relates that he heard the Holy Prophet (S.A.S.) say: Suppose if one of you had a running canal at his door and he takes bath in it five times a day, then would any dirt be left on his person? The companions submitted: In such a case no dirt would be left on his person. The Holy Prophet (S.A.S.) remarked: Similar is the case of five obligatory prayers. Allah remits all sins in consideration of these prayers. (Bukhari and Muslim).
